LOWELL NEWS.

Illness of your correspondent prevented the penning of the usual Lowell items last week. -o- Died, in Lowell Jan. 16, Mary E., the infant granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Fox. Only five weeks was the little bud a joy to the young mother here and then it was taken to a brighter blossoming in heaven. -o- Since writing our last item Miss Maude Justice received the sad news of the death of her father at his home Grenola, Kan. Mr. Justice was a gunsmith and was accidentally shot and instantly killed while cleaning a gun. He was formerly a resident of Lowell. Miss Justice attended the funeral but returned home this week. -o- J. H. Morgan has been courting in Columbus this week. -o- Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fulkerson, Florence Warrington and W. F. Carr attended the Gage-Henderson wedding at Baxter Monday evening. -o- "Resolved, that a smoking husband is worse than a scolding wife," was the question for debate at the L. L. L. last Friday evening. Those present report quite an interesting and amusing discussion. Prof. Bowman's appeal for the negative was so good that every one present felt sure that the judges' verdict would be, as it was, for the negative. -o- The mills have both been idle this week—high water. Fears were entertained at one time that the foot-bridge would be carried away, but it was not injured. -o- Have you had la grippe? Is the question now. We think nearly everyone is better now. W. P. Sharp, E. J. Leggett and J. J. Hart were among the sufferers. T. W. Murray is also on the sick list.

A Scrap of Paper Saves her Life.
It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by her physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery and got a trial bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, druggist, Ft. Smith. Trial bottle of this wonderful discovery 10c at Craig's Drug Store.

One Year's Earnings of a Poet.
Boston Journal.

I was talking a few evenings ago with a young poet whose name is familiar to every magazine reader, and whose work the editors of periodicals receive with more favor than that of any other of the younger school of versifiers. In fact he is accepted by the public and recognized by his brother authors as one of the most successful young authors of to-day. Now what does this mean in dollars and cents? I will tell you exactly. This young verse builder has sold during 1889 thirty-eight poems in all, and the prices he received for them I copy here direct from his memorandum book:

5 poems to the Century at $10 and $15.....	$60.00
3 poems to Scribner's at $10.....	30.00
7 poems to Puck and Judge, in all.....	53.25
1 poem to Lippincott's.....	12.50
5 poems to the Harper periodicals.....	45.50
11 poems to Life.....	61.25
3 poems to St. Nicholas.....	22.50
2 poems to various other periodicals.....	19.25
38 poems. Total.....	$306.25

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A, who uses tobacco, claims that it is all right for him to do so, as he saves all it costs by refraining from other expensive indulgences and deplores the extravagance of others. B, who goes to all the shows and plays billiards, never spends his money for cigars and censures A for his bad habit. C, who does neither of these, and pities the wives of A and B because they do, keeps a dog and gun and spends considerable money indulging his propensity for hunting. Thus it is. We all think we are very economical, yet each has his little pet extravagance in the waste of both time and money that he justifies because he is free from those in which he sees others indulge.

Eupepsy.
That is what you ought to have, in fact you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions and the use persisted in, will bring you good digestion and oust the demon dyspepsia and install instead eupepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for dyspepsia and all diseases of the liver, stomach and kidneys. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at Craig's Drug Store.

Restored Her Health.
Forty-two years I suffered from boils, erysipelas and other blood affections, taking during that time great quantities of different medicines without giving me any perceptible relief. Friends induced me to try S. S. S. It improved me from the start, and after taking several bottles restored my health as far as I could hope for at my age, which is now seventy-five years.

Cured After Twenty-Five Years of Suffering.

I have used Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) for blood diseases and in every instance with the best results. About twenty-five years ago I had my leg hurt in an accident and the wound never entirely healed. I tried various remedies without success. I was finally induced to try S. S. S. That medicine healed it up—healed it after twenty-five years of suffering had been endured and much money had been thrown away in the purchase of worthless medicines.

Rheumatism in Children.

One of my children was afflicted for a long time with rheumatism. After a number of remedies had failed I commenced giving her Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) After taking a couple of bottles she was entirely cured.

Forty-Eight Years in Prison.

John Hicks, aged 84 years, has been released from the northern prison at Michigan City. He has served forty-eight years of his life behind the bars. The prison authorities have compared notes and discovered that he has "done more time" than any living criminal in the United States. He has served six terms in the Michigan City penitentiary, one term at Jeffersonville and two terms in Columbus. His first crime was committed in 1839. In some way he learned that a man named Bearder had $360 in his house. While the family were at church Hicks rifled the house and stole their money. A marked coin led to his conviction and he got a three years' sentence. He was never afterward out six months at a time and was sent up successively for burglary, criminal assault, robbery, larceny, cattle stealing and horse stealing. On the expiration of his fifth term at Michigan City he made his way to the office where the directors were in session. He begged them to allow him to build a shanty in a part of the prison, in which he could sleep and call his home. All he asked was that the scraps from the table be given him for food. The board refused to allow him this and Hicks bade them good-bye. He walked to Paldi, where he was arrested for theft and taken to prison to serve what he declared to be his last term. His hair is as white as snow, in keeping with his long flowing beard and he looks like a patriarch. His desire is to secure honest work that will guarantee him a home.

Perhaps the readers of the News would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this Remedy is taken as directed, as soon as a cold has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effects of a cold and gradually lessen its severity, it not effectually cure the cold in two days' time and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold as quickly or leave the system in as sound a condition. Fifty-cent and one dollar bottles for sale at Craig's Drug Store.

Sunday in Missouri.

Stranger—There seems to be a Sunday law in this town.
Resident—Yes, sir. If you want to get shaved you will have to wait until Monday.

Stranger—Oh, I don't want to get shaved. I want to get drunk.
Resident—Come with me.
